

Internship Application

Blood:Water Mission has developed an internship program to address the great need for assistance in the daily operations of the organization and to mentor and equip young leaders. Blood:Water Mission would not exist without compassionate volunteers who catch the vision and donate their time, energy and talent to fulfill the various needs of the organization. Blood:Water Mission treats interns as team members and as part of the "Blood:Water family". This level of trust requires that we use great discretion in the application and interview process. Please take this application process seriously and know that the staff of Blood:Water Mission look forward to getting to know you and accept interns with great intentionality.
